

GULLANE BOWLING CLUB - MEMBER CODE OF CONDUCT

Members are reminded that Gullane Bowling Club has been built and developed over the years by its members for the benefit of all members and for the advancement of the sport of bowling. It is the responsibility of everyone involved with the club to ensure that it continues to develop and progress and that no person/s is/are allowed to degrade or damage the property or interests of the club or bring the club or the sport of bowls into disrepute.

The Executive Committee is a voluntary body elected by the membership at the Annual General Meeting each year and its commitment to the club and its membership should thus be respected. It should be noted that Executive Committee decisions are made for the benefit of the club in general and not for the convenience of the Executive Committee.

Being a member of Gullane Bowling Club entitles and obligates you to certain rights and responsibilities, as it does other members, guests, visitors and the club overall. Members of and visitors to Gullane Bowling Club are required under this Code of Conduct to behave at all times in a way which upholds the values and good reputation of Gullane Bowling Club.

Breaches of the Code of Conduct – Reporting and Resolution

Gullane Bowling Club, through its Executive Committee, reserves the right to make decisions and enforce fair and reasonable measures following a breach of the Code of Conduct.

Any breach of the Code of Conduct must be reported to the Executive Committee who will fully investigate the matter in a calm, honest and dignified manner and every effort should be made by all concerned to maintain confidentiality.

If, following an investigation and having considered all relevant circumstances it is concluded that a breach has occurred, then the Executive Committee shall take what it deems to be appropriate action. This may include issuing a formal reprimand in writing, a temporary suspension of club membership or fully revoking club membership.

In the case of non-members, action may include a ban from club premises and grounds for a set period of time or for life.

Any breach of Criminal Law shall be referred to the Police.

Application for membership, and ongoing membership, of Gullane Bowling Club implies agreement to abide by the abovementioned and acceptance that failure to do so will result in the relevant action being taken.
